

SUMMER READING
x 2020

ONCE UPON A TIME

- ★ Play through one of the following history-themed escape rooms (you can do this solo or make it a team event and play with your family or friends (virtually, of course)!
 - Civil War: Breakout
 - Survive the Titanic! - Created by: Henika District Library
 - Egypt: Escape like an Egyptian - Created by: Dover Public Library

- ★ Ask an adult to tell you a story about their past. Record it in some way (write it down, create some art that relates to it, create a scrapbook for it) and, only if you have their permission, share your experience, and the story, with us via social media. (Instagram or Facebook)

- ★ Help document an important time in Oklahoma history! Share your COVID story with the Oklahoma Historical Society here.

- ★ Make a time capsule. This article has some great ideas on how to get started: <https://www.wikihow.com/Create-a-Time-Capsule>

- ★ Visit a museum. You can do this locally (when they open) or virtually. This link has some great links for virtual tours but you can also find more just by typing “virtual museum tours” in Google: <https://www.theartnewspaper.com/feature/on-coronavirus-lockdown-the-top-online-museum-and-art-tours>

- ★ Make a family recipe book. Here’s a list of things you might use to make it:
 - Paper & pens (or a computer to type them up nicely and a printer to print them)
 - Family photo or a drawing for a cover page
 - 3 ring binder
 - Sheet protectors (so they don’t get messed up in the middle of cooking)
 - Family members to tell you about their favorite family recipes. Add a story if they have one!

When you’ve completed at least 2 of the activities,
